MAURICIO POCHETTINO

"I AM HAPPY TO SEE SO MANY OF THE SQUAD CONTRIBUTING TO OUR FORM – NO MATTER WHO HAS COME INTO THE TEAM, THEY HAVE STEPPED UP"

Hello and welcome back to Wembley.

It has been a while since we last played a home game so it feels good to be back in front of you again tonight. Since our last fixture here, we have been on a fantastic run winning four games on our travels.

What has pleased me most is how clinical we have been. In those four matches we have scored 11 goals and enjoyed some convincing victories against tough opposition.

We showed character against AFC Bournemouth as we had to come from behind against a side who have been in good form recently. We lost Harry to injury in the first half yet the players adapted well to a change of formation and were rewarded with a comfortable 4-1 scoreline.

We built on this result in the FA Cup at Swansea by dominating them from the first whistle to book our place in the semi-finals. We now face Manchester United here next weekend in another huge match with a place in the cup final at stake.

I was delighted with our return to action following the international break as we recorded another excellent victory over Chelsea. After a break in the schedule it can be difficult to recapture momentum, however it felt like the players had never been away.

They were so brave at Stamford Bridge and demonstrated great strength and quality to recover from going behind to take all three points. It is always special to win a derby against one of your rivals, particularly when they are close to you in the table and we also know how significant this result was for the club and our fans.

We ensured we made the most of that result with another victory in our most recent game at Stoke City. It was a difficult, tight game that required a different approach from the team. We had to show a tremendous amount of resilience and composure in order to come away with all three points which was pleasing.

We are now unbeaten in the Premier League since December, which gives us many reasons to be proud and positive right now. We have put space between us and the teams outside of the top four though our work is not finished yet. Our focus remains on the teams ahead of us and finishing as high as we can.

I am also happy to see so many of the squad contributing to our good form – no matter who has come into the team they have stepped up and played their part. Everybody is working so hard for each other and long may that continue.

Congratulations are also due to our captain and leader Hugo Lloris who made his 200th Premier League appearance for the club last weekend. Hugo is one of the best goalkeepers in the world and is a first class professional so we were all pleased to see him reach this milestone and become only the 11th Spurs player to achieve this in Premier League history.

This evening we welcome Manchester City and their manager Pep Guardiola to Wembley. As the Premier League leaders, we all know the quality City possess. We can expect a highly competitive game and hope to continue our current run.

Enjoy the game.

LEGENDS SET FOR BATTLE OF HASTINGS

After their annual winter break, the Spurs Legends team returns to action with a big match at Hastings United FC, East Sussex, on Sunday, April 22.

Led by former striker Mark Falco, the side regularly includes the likes of David Howells, Justin Edinburgh, Tony Galvin and Stuart Nethercott.

They'll be taking on Hastings United Vets in a 2pm kick-off. Organisers say that tickets are in high demand and can only be secured in advance via hastingsunited.com. Tickets are £5 for adults and kids under five go free.

Hugo Makes It A Double Century

Hugo Lloris has become the 11th player to reach 200 appearances for Spurs in the Premier League following the skipper's appearance in last Saturday's 2-1 win at Stoke.

Signed from Lyon in August, 2012, he made his Premier League debut in a 2-0 win against Aston Villa on October 7 that year before taking over the number one spot from Brad Friedel for the derby at Arsenal the following month. Since then, Hugo has started 199 of 211 matches in the Premier League.

Here's the list of our players to have achieved the 200 appearance milestone in the Premier League:

299 - Darren Anderton
276 – Jermain Defoe
268 – Ledley King
266 – Aaron Lennon
255 – Sol Campbell
240 – Ian Walker
238 – Robbie Keane
236 – Teddy Sheringham
236 – Michael Dawson
226 – Stephen Carr
200 – Hugo Lloris

STOKE WIN EXTENDS UNBEATEN RUN

Saturday's win at Stoke City means Mauricio Pochettino and the players have equalled our best unbeaten run in the Premier League era.

Christian Eriksen and Harry Kane scored the goals in our 2-1 win as we stretched that sequence to 14 games, matching our previous best from between August 16-December 13, 2015.

Our previous loss was at Manchester City on December 16 last year and since then, we've won 11 and drawn three matches.

We've also won six games on the trot in the Premier League – equalling our second-best winning run in the division. Our best winning run in the Premier League is nine between February 26 and April 30 last season.

For the record, our longest unbeaten sequence in league football goes back to our old Division Two title-winning season in 1949-50, when we put together 22 unbeaten matches between August 31 and December 31, 1949.

In the top flight, our best unbeaten run is 20 matches in the old Division One between January 21 and August 29, 1967.

ERIKSEN ELATED AT TOUGH VICTORY

Christian Eriksen likened last weekend's clash at Stoke City to a game of basketball as we were pushed to the limit before going on to take maximum points at the bet365 Stadium.

The great Dane scored our opening goal and delivered the free-kick for Harry Kane to score what proved to be the winner, after Mame Diouf had levelled for the home side, and we held off a spirited Stoke side to make it six wins on the trot and 14 matches unbeaten in the Premier League.

It was very much an an end-to-end final 25 minutes that saw chances on the break for both teams and Stoke's Xherdan Shaqiri strike the crossbar, quite a contrast to the previous week when we overcame Chelsea with a strong second half display.

"It was a completely different game to Chelsea," explained Christian. "We didn't have this game under control, it was very open and a bit like basketball, back and forth, if you lost the ball you ended up in your goal area and the same the other way.

"People know by now that we don't lie down and when we scored we all felt we could take it on, we had the chances to score more but the last pass maybe wasn't good enough and we made a few mistakes which gave them chances, that's what kept them in the game.

"We go into this period of the season feeling very confident, getting the wins we need and we want so the confidence keeps getting higher. We've said before, we go into every game with the mentality of 'we are going to win today, no matter what' and we take that with us."

Walter Tull remembered...

Tributes were paid recently to our former player Walter Tull on the centenary of his death during World War One.

Walter, the first black outfield player to play at the highest level in this country, joined us as an amateur in April, 1909, and so impressed that he signed professional terms within a month.

The club continues to recognise the legacy Walter has left on our game and our society, while educating local young people on the history of Tull through our Foundation.

Club Ambassador Ledley King recently attended an educational workshop for local primary school students at Percy House – our new enterprise, employment and skills hub on Tottenham High Road, a place where local people will be able to learn more about the impact that Tull's legacy has left in our game and on society today.

This follows on from the annual schools workshops delivered on the subject of Tull around Black History Month (October), traditionally held at White Hart Lane's 'Spurs Learning Zone'.

Walter's story will also be told in the new museum, which will play such an important part at our wonderful new stadium.

After two goals in 10 senior games, Tull joined Northampton Town in October, 1911, in a deal that saw defender Charlie Brittan move to White Hart Lane.

When war broke out, Walter enlisted in the Footballers' Battalion of the Middlesex Regiment and became the first black combat officer in the British Army.

He was mentioned in despatches and recommended for the Military Cross for his bravery in the face of enemy fire.

Sadly, he died during the Battle of the Somme on March 25, 1918. He was aged 29. The war would end just over six months later.

Ledley and Club Historian John Fennelly, represented the club at All Saints Church, Northampton, last month, where Walter Tull's life was celebrated in a special commemorative service led by the Mayor, Cllr Gareth Eales.

We continue to salute his memory.

Mauricio Taricco blocks the path of Shaun Wright-Phillips in League Cup action at the Lane in 2003

FAMILIAR FOE!

Andy Greeves tells a story from our vast history that has a link to our matchday opponents. This evening, he looks at the occasions in which we have faced a club in both domestic cup competitions during the same season, as we did against Manchester City in 1992-93 and 2003-04

Since we first entered the Football League Cup back in 1966, there have been nine seasons in which we have faced the same opposition in both domestic cup competitions. The first such instance was in 1968-69, when we beat Aston Villa 3-2 in a League Cup fifth round tie at White Hart Lane and racked up a 4-1 victory at Villa Park in the third round of the FA Cup.

Having lost 3-2 on aggregate to Manchester United in the second round of the League Cup during the 1979-80 season, the FA Cup third round draw also paired us with Red Devils that campaign. After a 1-1 draw at the Lane, we secured a memorable 1-0 extra-time victory in the replay at Old Trafford that saw Glenn Hoddle play in goal for over half an hour of the match following an injury to our keeper Milija Aleksic while Ossie Ardiles got our winner at the other end.

"I was probably a bit naïve at the time saying I had played in goal in the past… that was it, I was given the gloves!" Hoddle once reflected on his goalkeeping antics at Old Trafford.

We faced five matches against Liverpool during the 1984-85 season, winning 1-0 in the League Cup third round but losing by the same score line in an FA Cup fourth round match. Those results came during the same campaign we famously won at Anfield for the first time in 73 years, with Garth Crooks scoring the only goal of our league match of March 16, 1985.

We took on Wimbledon in six fixtures during the 1998-99 season, which included no fewer than four cup ties. A brace from Allan Nielsen and an Andy Sinton goal gave us a 3-0 FA

"I was probably a bit naive at the time, saying I had played in goal before..."

Cup fourth round replay victory over the Dons that campaign, while Steffen Iversen scored the only goal of our two-legged League Cup semi-final encounter.

In 2001-02, we beat Chelsea 6-3 on aggregate in the League Cup semi-final, which included a 5-1 triumph over the Blues in the second leg at White Hart Lane on January 23, 2002. We later lost 4-0 to the West Londoners in the FA Cup quarter finals. Earlier in the campaign, we had knocked fellow Premier League side Bolton Wanderers and also Tranmere Rovers of the old Division One out of both domestic cups as we did to Southend United of the Championship in 2006-07.

Harry Redknapp's Spurs experienced the opposite fate in 2008-09, when we lost that season's League Cup Final to Manchester United on penalties and were beaten 2-1 by the Red Devils in the fourth round of the FA Cup.

We have twice faced this evening's opponents Manchester City in the two domestic cup competitions during a single season, in both 1992-93 and 2003-04.

On October 28, 1992, a Vinny Samways goal was enough to give us an away victory in a League Cup third round tie. We returned to Maine Road in the Premier League a month later, securing another 1-0 win, this time courtesy of a Terry Phelan own goal. The FA Cup quarter-final tie of March 7, 1993 – also played at City's former home – was a real classic that saw Nayim net a hat-trick in our 4-2 victory while Steve Sedley also scored. Mike Sheron and Phelan were on target for the Citizens.

Our next home fixture after that victory was against… Manchester City! The irony of the opponent was noted by skipper Gary Mabbutt in his programme column for the Premier League match, adding:

"We have had a good season against City so far in the league and both cup competitions and we will obviously be looking to complete the set this evening. But, as ever, we expect a tough match. All three encounters so far have been hard fought."

We managed to complete our season 'quadruple' against City that night, with Darren Anderton, Nayim and Andy Turner getting our goals in a 3-1 win, Sheron again on target for the visitors.

The Citizens had moved to the Etihad Stadium – then known as the 'City of Manchester Stadium' – by the time of our next flurry of matches in a single season in 2003-04. In our league clashes, we played out a 0-0 draw at the new venue on September 28, 2003, as well as a 1-1 draw with the Citizens at White Hart Lane later in the season.

The real drama came in our cup meetings that campaign. We put on an impressive performance to seal a 3-1 League Cup victory against them at the Lane on December 3, 2003, with goals from Darren Anderton, Helder Postiga and Fredi Kanoute. In the FA Cup, we drew 1-1 in an FA Cup fourth round tie at the City of Manchester Stadium on January 25.

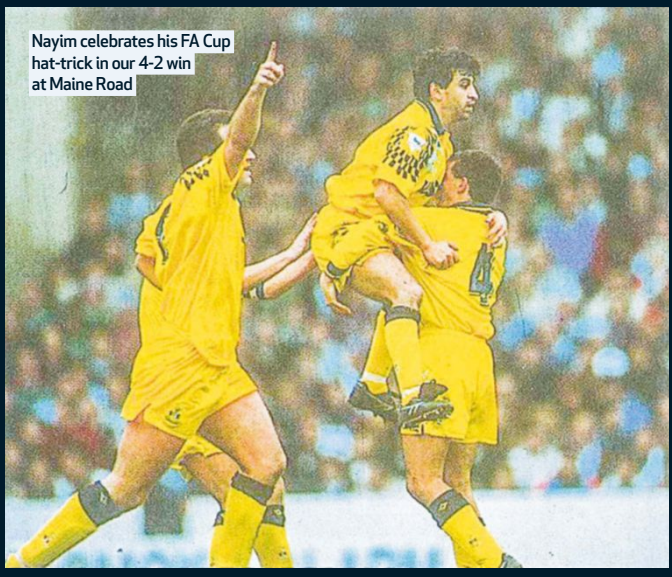
Ledley King, Robbie Keane and Christian Ziege put us 3-0 up by half-time in the replay, which took place in N17 some 10 days later. To make matter worse for Manchester City, Joey Barton was sent-off as the two teams headed back to the changing rooms for the interval. But the second period proved to be a painful one for all connected to Spurs. Goals from Sylvain Distin, Paul Bosvelt and Sean Wright-Phillips drew the 10 men of

Chris Perry and Neil Sullivan celebrate after beating Chelsea 5-1 in the League Cup semi-final in 2002

City level while Jon Macken grabbed a last-minute to winner to the delight of the travelling support.

In his column in our subsequent match programme, David Pleat – who was Director of Football and Acting Manager at the time – wrote about that City result: "It is still difficult to reconcile the events of Wednesday evening. I know the players would not have slept as they relived a bad dream. Football is full of weird and wonderful surprises, but no one could have expected the dramatic turnaround in events.

"The players will have to live with the result and they know how tough football can be…but players with character can take strength from adversity and that is what we shall be looking for in the coming weeks."



Nayim celebrates his FA Cup hat-trick in our 4-2 win at Maine Road

CAN WE PLAY YOU EVERY WEEK?!

In addition to facing the same opponent in both domestic cup competitions in one campaign, there have been other scenarios in which we have played a particular club on multiple occasions during a single season.

In 1963-64, we took on Manchester United in a two-legged European Cup Winners' Cup tie, as well as two First Division matches. In 1967-68 meanwhile, we took on the Red Devils in the league, an FA Cup third round tie and replay in addition to the FA Charity Shield at the start of the campaign.

We have since faced English opponents in two-legged European ties, beating Wolves of course in 1971-72 to win the UEFA Cup, as well as facing them in the League. The following season we played Liverpool no less than six times, with two First Division fixtures, a pair of UEFA Cup semi-final matches and a League Cup fifth round tie and replay.

We have also played in a series of so-called 'marathon matches' over the years – cup ties that have taken three games and a 'second replay' – to settle the score line. These include FA Cup fixtures with Bolton Wanderers (1934-35), West Ham United (1938-39) and Birmingham City (1952-53), while we have faced 'second replays' in the League Cup against Middlesbrough in 1972-73 and Portsmouth in 1985-86. Our League Cup semi-final meeting with Arsenal in 1987 was a marathon match of sorts, requiring three games to settle. It should be noted however that the original tie was two-legged, prior to a replay on March 4, 1987.

Cup Winners' Cup action against Manchester United in 1963

We faced three of our First Division opponents – Liverpool, Southampton and Everton – in the short-lived Screensport Super Cup in 1985-86. Our two-legged semi-final against the Toffees, coupled with a fifth round FA Cup tie and two league fixtures meant we played the Merseysiders five times that season.

On the back of our FA Cup tie with Nottingham Forest on February 19, 1996 being abandoned 14 minutes into the match due to snow, we started the original tie again 11 days later and then hosted a replay on March 9, 1996. We also faced Forest in the Premier League in 1995-96, affectively meaning we had five fixtures against the East Midlanders during the campaign.

Replays against a team from the same division has also seen us face a quadruple of fixtures against one club in a single campaign on numerous occasions – most notably against this evening's opponents Manchester City, who we beat 3-2 in our FA Cup Final replay of May 14, 1981.

Heung-Min Son is hoping to draw on the disappointment felt after our defeat at the Etihad Stadium earlier this season as motivation to continue our unbeaten run this evening.

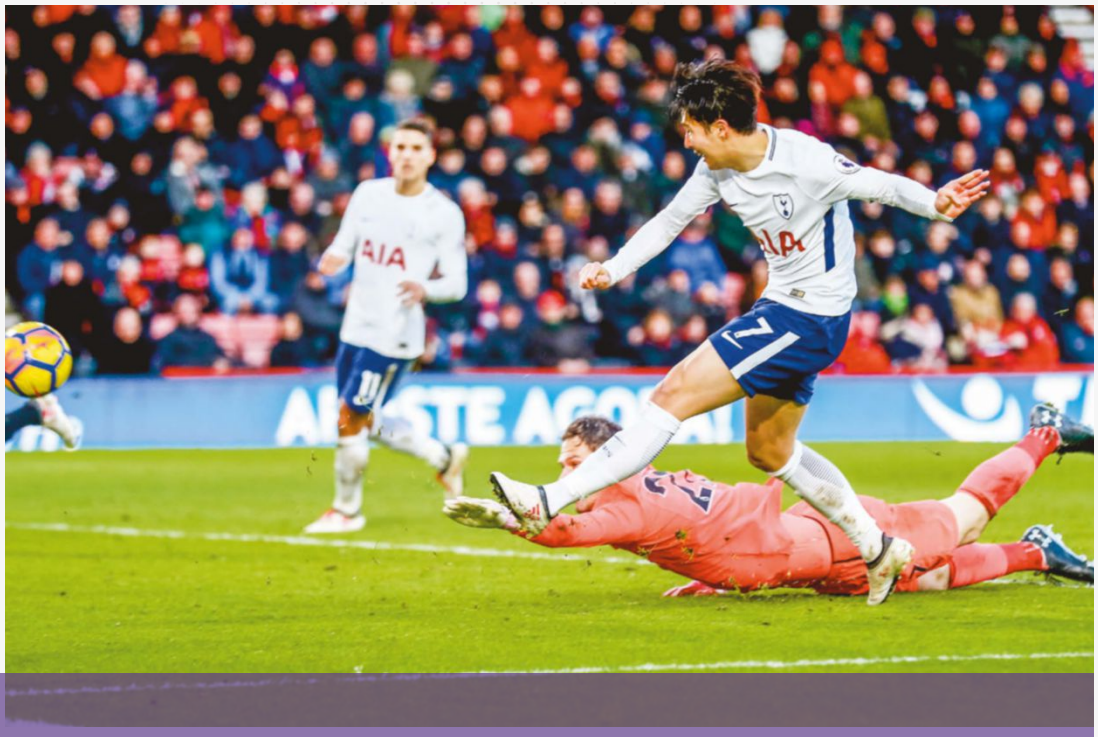
In a campaign which has seen us suffer just seven defeats in our 49 matches in all competitions so far – five of those coming in the Premier League – it was our 4-1 reverse against tonight's opponents Manchester City which was the heaviest.

Pep Guardiola's side may have scored three times in the final 20 minutes of the December 16 clash to give the scoreline a more flattering look before Christian Eriksen netted a late consolation, but nevertheless our South Korean forward admits it took some time in the days after the game before his mood lifted.

Sonny played for 77 minutes – by which time Ilkay Gundogan and Kevin De Bruyne had put City 2-0 ahead – before he was replaced by Erik Lamela for the closing stages. A Raheem Sterling double in the final 10 minutes put the gloss on the result for the home side and meant they became the first team to score four goals against us in a Premier League clash for over three years. Ironically, they were the last side to do so as well when they inflicted a similar 4-1 defeat on us in October, 2014, at the same venue.

As Sonny explained, it was a difficult result to take.

"When you lose like that and the performance isn't as good as we know it could have been, then you are disappointed,"



"I TRUST MY TEAM-MATES AND THE COACHING STAFF AND I KNOW WE HAVE A GOOD CHANCE OF WINNING THIS TIME AROUND. WE ARE ALL LOOKING FORWARD TO IT" said the 25-year-old. "I'm always sad when we lose, it doesn't matter how I have played, I get sad and angry and I can remember feeling particularly disappointed after the City game.

"We are a good, strong team and to lose like that was not a good feeling. We need to have the memory of that game in our minds when we play City this evening because I think that can help us.

"We certainly don't need to be scared of them and, if we play as well as we can, then I think we can win tonight.

"It isn't easy to score four goals against us. I can tell you – when I'm training against our defenders it is very difficult to score goals because they are so solid.

"Maybe we made a few mistakes in our last match with City but we learned from them and learned from that performance. I trust my team-mates and the coaching staff and I know we have a good chance of winning this time around. We are all looking forward to it."

If any proof were needed that we did learn from that City defeat, then our current run of form is a good place to start. Since that day in Manchester, we have produced a club record-equalling sequence of 14 Premier League matches without losing, winning 11 and drawing just three.

It's a set of results which has seen us climb up into the top four and put a healthy 10 point gap between ourselves and fifth-placed Chelsea, while we are level on 67 points with Liverpool having played a game less.

Manchester City, on the other hand, might be arriving at Wembley Stadium as the league champions elect as they seek the two wins which would confirm their title success, but they've not had the best of weeks.

Defeats in both legs of their Champions League quarter-final against Liverpool and a 3-2 reverse at home to neighbours Manchester United last weekend, despite leading 2-0 at half-time, has taken some of the shine off what has been a fantastic season for Guardiola's team.

They have earned rave reviews for their free-flowing football and have currently scored 90 goals in the league so far, but a trio of defeats might have an impact this evening.

"City are a big team and they have done so well in the league this season, but they've just had three losses in a row and gone out of the Champions League, so maybe it will be a bit difficult for them to come to Wembley for this game," suggested Sonny.

"Of course, they are nearly there in the Premier League and they will win the title, but we want to make this a tough game for them. It will be difficult for us too as they are a top side and there are a lot of quality players on show this evening.

"We can take confidence from our recent results. Football is all about confidence and we have a lot of it at the moment which we must use in the right way. The lads look good and sharp in training, everyone is ready for this game."

It's been another highly productive season for Sonny, who has followed up last year's tally of 21 goals in all competitions with a further

CAREER SO FAR

EARLY DAYS

Having started his youth career with FC Seoul, he left South Korea for Germany at the age of 16, joining Hamburg's academy, scoring his first goal for the German side in the 2009-10 season.

TURNING PRO

Signed his first professional contract with Hamburg before his 18th birthday, scoring against Chelsea in the 2010-11 pre-season. He netted a league goal against Mainz in October, 2010, making him Hamburg's youngest-ever league scorer.

BAYER BOUND

After three successful years with Hamburg, he joined Bayer Leverkusen in June, 2013, scoring a hat-trick against his former club Hamburg in the November. Scored 21 times in 62 appearances for Leverkusen.

"IT'S NOT ABOUT GOALS OR SETTING TARGETS, I JUST WANT TO BE BETTER EACH SEASON. AS LONG AS THE TEAM WINS, THAT'S WHAT MATTERS"

18 strikes and he could well top last year's figure in our remaining six matches.

A popular character around Hotspur Way with his cheerful nature and beaming smile, the former Bayer Leverkusen forward admits he didn't set himself a goals target at the start of the campaign – but he'll be delighted if he breaks last year's total!

"For me, it's not about goals or setting targets, I just want to try to be better each season," said Sonny, who has seen the famous old 'Nice One Cyril' terrace chant adapted for him in recent weeks by our supporters.

"It doesn't really matter how many goals I score but it is important for me to improve my performances each season. Of course, if I do beat last season's number then I will be very happy but I cannot allow myself to worry about that because if I did, I could lose my overall focus on my game.

"I just want to bring my best performances to the team and if the chances come my way, I will try to convert them. As long as the team wins, that's what matters most."

SON'S A SPUR

Moved to N17 in August, 2015, becoming the most expensive Asian player in history at the time. Made his debut for us at Sunderland on September 13, 2015, and last season scored 21 times for the club.

INTERNATIONAL ARENA

Made his South Korea debut in December, 2010, and featured in the 2014 World Cup, scoring in their 2-4 defeat to Algeria. Currently has 20 goals in 61 appearances for his country.

FIFA WORLD CUP RUSSIA 2018

ROAD TO RUSSIA

While there's still a lot to focus on at club level, with only a few weeks to go, the countdown to this summer's World Cup in Russia is on! Ahead of the showpiece tournament, BILLY SHAW chats to members of our current squad who have helped their respective nations qualify over the last two years to find out about their memories of past World Cups and their predictions for 2018. The series continues with England's ERIC DIER…

What was the first World Cup you can remember watching?
I remember Michael Owen's amazing solo run and goal against Argentina in 1998, but I was only young then and couldn't appreciate it as much until I got older, so the Japan and South Korea tournament in 2002 is the earliest World Cup I have clear recollections of watching. I was living in Portugal, following it on TV. I went to an international school and I seem to remember they'd stop classes for the games involving Portugal and England, so that was quite lucky!

Who were the stars that year?
I remember Ronaldinho, mainly because of the infamous free-kick he scored for Brazil to knock England out. That's really my first vivid World Cup memory. There were loads of great players – the Brazil team was full of them with people like Ronaldo and Cafu and for England you had lots of stars such as David Beckham and Michael Owen, who was probably at his peak then.

England winning in 1966: a popular World Cup highlight

Have you ever been to a World Cup match as a supporter?
No.

If there was one World Cup game in history that you could have gone to, which one would it be and why?
Obviously England winning the World Cup Final against Germany in 1966 would be the one. I met Sir Geoff Hurst at the club's Training Centre a couple of weeks ago and that was really special.

What are the best memories you have of your own country at the World Cup?
Michael Owen's goal at France '98 against Argentina would be up there. As I said before, I was only young back then but I've seen replays of it plenty of times since then. Obviously it's a bittersweet one because England lost the match on penalties, but the goal itself stands alone as a memorable moment.

What is the best match you've ever seen at the finals?
In terms of drama it would be Portugal v Holland in 2006 when there were all those yellow cards and sendings-off. There were 16 yellows and four reds in that game, which I believe was a record for the World Cup. Portugal won it 1-0. Also the 2006 Final when Italy beat France on penalties after a 1-1 draw. That was an entertaining game.

And the best goal?
James Rodriguez for Colombia when he smacked one in

Germany's mid-90s kit: unusual

"MICHAEL OWEN'S GOAL AGAINST ARGENTINA WOULD BE UP THERE..."

at the last World Cup in Brazil. I remember he controlled it on his chest and then scored from a long way out. It was a great strike.

What is the most unusual kit you've seen at the tournament?
It was before my time really as it was used in the same year I was born, but I've seen photos online of Germany's kit from 1994 – a white shirt with yellow, red and black patterns across the top. That's the most unusual one I've seen.

Who do you think will make an impact at this year's World Cup?
England! We have a young team that I think can be very exciting in the future.

What's being said

Ryan Mason, former England international and Eric's former team-mate at Spurs

"I feel like Eric has slotted straight into the England set-up. Obviously he had the experience and exposure of working abroad as a young kid at Sporting Lisbon and that's definitely helped him understand the game in different ways because at international level it's totally different – it's more tactical, more about understanding space and where to be on the football pitch, both in and out of possession, and I think Eric is a very intelligent footballer in that respect. In a positional sense, not many people can play right-back, centre-half or central midfield in the Premier League and do it with ease and I think now he's kind of making that centre-mid position his own, not just for Tottenham but for England as well. That role in the England team is pivotal – the new gaffer wants his attacking players to go forward with pace and it's about having that stability and protection in behind and dictating games as well. I feel like over the last few years, Eric has consistently been one of England's better players and it's great to see him improving all the time. Full credit to him – he takes care of himself, he's professional, he's a student of the game and is constantly learning."

REMEMBER WHEN...

...we last played on this day? Danny Rose certainly will, as it turned out to be a memorable Premier League debut for the left-back. Arsenal were the visitors to White Hart Lane on April 14, 2010, and we were coming off the back of two hugely disappointing defeats – 3-1 to Sunderland in the league and 2-0 to Portsmouth here at Wembley in the FA Cup semi-final. But Rose lifted the mood just 10 minutes into the derby, smashing home a stupendous volley to give us the lead and renew our hopes of a top four finish. Two minutes after half-time, Gareth Bale doubled our lead and although Nicklas Bendtner pulled one back five minutes from time, we held on. Three days later we beat Chelsea at home and when Peter Crouch nodded in the winner against tonight's opponents on May 5, we secured Champions League football for the first time in our history.

ON THIS DAY APRIL 14

SUNDERLAND 2-3 SPURS

We staged a dramatic comeback at the Stadium of Light on this day 17 years ago. Kevin Kilbane and Niall Quinn put Sunderland two up on 12 minutes, but after the interval Stephen Clemence pulled one back before a Gary Doherty double turned the game on its head, the winner coming on 88 minutes.

SPURS 3-1 ARSENAL

One of our most enjoyable Wembley triumphs came on this day 27 years ago. Arsenal were going for the Double but we put paid to their FA Cup hopes in our semi-final clash. Paul Gascoigne opened the scoring with that stunning free-kick, Alan Smith levelled for the Gunners but a Gary Lineker brace booked our place in the final.

1934
MANCHESTER CITY 1-5 SPURS

This isn't the first time we've played Manchester City on this day, as the Blues visited the Lane today in 1934. We'd suffered back-to-back defeats to Stoke City and Derby County, but enjoyed a fine win over City thanks to goals from Taffy O'Callaghan (2), George Hunt (2) and Willie Evans.

MANAGER:

PEP GUARDIOLA

Guardiola is a man who needs very little introduction. As a midfielder for Barcelona in the 1990s, Guardiola built a reputation for style and consistency but it is his managerial prowess at the same club that cemented his reputation. He won La Liga three times, the Copa del Rey twice and also enjoyed two Champions League victories. A move to Bayern Munich followed – which brought three Bundesliga titles – before joining City at the start of the 2016-17 season.

FORM GUIDE:

Pep Guardiola's side had the chance to clinch the title in front of their own fans against bitter rivals Manchester United last weekend, but went down to a 3-2 defeat having been leading by two goals at half-time. They can't mathematically win the league today, but a win would put them in touching distance of the trophy. Guardiola suffered a fresh blow in midweek as City also went out of the Champions League, losing 5-1 on aggregate to Liverpool after a 2-1 second leg defeat at the Etihad.

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 13.04.83
The former Barcelona goalkeeper signed for City in 2016 but has since lost his first team place and has been linked with a move away from the Etihad this summer. The Chilean international, who has played over 100 times for his country, representing them in two World Cups, has spent the majority of his career in La Liga with Real Sociedad (2006-14) and then Barcelona (2014-16).

EDERSON

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 17.08.93
Ederson has made the No.1 position at City his own after a superb season. Bought for £35m from Portuguese giants Benfica last June, Ederson was immediately promoted to first choice by Pep Guardiola and he has not looked back, providing a solid shot-stopping presence. However, it is Ederson's distribution which has won him the most plaudits this season and he is a truly excellent passer, capable of quickly turning defence into attack.

KYLE WALKER

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 28.05.90
Spurs fans know all about Kyle, who plied his trade at White Hart Lane for eight years between 2009 and 2017 before making a move to Manchester last summer. Signed for us from Sheffield United and played 227 times, scoring four goals in our colours. Walker has enjoyed a fine season for City and looks certain to be Gareth Southgate's first-choice right-back at the 2018 World Cup in Russia.

CLEAR WINNER

Skipper Vincent Kompany leads the way with clearances in the City squad, averaging 4.3 per game in the league this season.

3 DANILO

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 15.07.91
Brazilian full-back Danilo was signed on a five-year deal last summer. He initially struggled to cement a regular starting berth this season and has admitted to missing La Liga – where he shone for Real Madrid – but he has become increasingly important and influential as this season has progressed and his wonder goal against Burnley back in February underlined his all-round talents.

5 JOHN STONES

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 28.05.94
Signed from Everton in 2016, England international Stones continues to go from strength to strength. Stones started his career at Barnsley before catching Everton's eye in 2013 and he stayed at Goodison Park for three years until he moved to the Etihad in a a £47.5m move that made him one of the world's most expensive defenders.

14 AYMERIC LAPORTE

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 27.05.94
Central defender Laporte joined Manchester City in January this year for a reported fee of £57m. That figure represents the promise the 23-year-old has displayed so far in his career. The Agen-born French under-21 international came to prominence during six years at Atletico Bilbao in La Liga after coming through the academy ranks at SU Agen and Bayonne before his move to Spain followed in 2012.

4 VINCENT KOMPANY

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 10.04.86
A lot of City's success in recent years can be traced back to Kompany, a player who is idolised at the Etihad for his 10 years of service and the trophies he has helped bring to the blue half of Manchester. The Belgian central defender has 74 caps for his country and remains a truly superb performer despite his struggles with injuries.

18 FABIAN DELPH

POSITION: MIDFIELDER/DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 21.11.89
England international Delph signed for Manchester City in summer 2015 from Aston Villa. An injury to Benjamin Mendy earlier this season gave the former Leeds United player the opportunity to cement a position in City's starting XI and although Delph can also deputise in midfield, he is more usually employed at left-back by Pep Guardiola.

30 NICOLAS OTAMENDI

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 12.02.88
Argentine central defender Otamendi signed from Valencia in August, 2015, and he has also played over 50 times for his country since his national team debut nine years ago. Prior to his time in La Liga with Valencia, the 30-year-old was an icon at Portuguese side Porto where he won the Europa League in 2011. A regular at the back for City this season.

21 DAVID SILVA

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 08.01.86
Playmaker Silva is a modern-day City legend and deservedly so after eight years at the club and countless stunning goals and assists. The Spanish international, who joined the club from Valencia in 2010, has played over 100 times for his country, winning the World Cup in 2010 and Euros in 2008 and 2012.

ILKAY GUNDOGAN

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 24.10.90
The German midfielder signed for Manchester City in 2016 following five years at Borussia Dortmund and he was the first player signed by incoming boss Pep Guardiola. That speaks volumes for the esteem in which the 27-year-old is held at the Etihad and he is similarly well regarded at international level, with 24 caps to his name and four goals so far for Joachim Low's side.

RAHEEM STERLING

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 08.12.94
Sterling has enjoyed a stellar season under the tutelage of Pep Guardiola and he is a certain pick for Gareth Southgate's 2018 World Cup squad, injuries permitting. The 23-year-old's pace and attacking instinct have helped him score 16 times this season and although his early performances following his move from Liverpool in 2015 were slow to catch the eye, he is now one of City's top performers.

25 FERNANDINHO

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 04.05.85
32-year-old Brazilian midfielder Fernandinho signed for City from Shakhtar Donetsk in June, 2013, and he immediately fitted in at the Etihad Stadium, where his combative and composed defensive midfield qualities have helped City prosper in both attack and defence. The midfielder, who began his career at Atletico Paranaense, has 41 caps for his country, with two goals to his name.

42 YAYA TOURE

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 13.05.83
Toure turns 35 next month and this looks set to be his final season in the Premier League. Yet if Toure does exit the Etihad next month, he leaves a team that he helped to transform into winners. Countless dominant performances have cemented the ex-Barcelona man's place among City's finest-ever players and he scored the winning goal here in the 2011 FA Cup final to kick off City's football resurgence.

33 GABRIEL JESUS

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 03.04.97
Brazilian sensation Jesus has become one of City's most dynamic and exciting forwards since signing from Palmeiras last January. During his time in his homeland, Jesus developed quickly into a footballing force and despite having turned just 21 this past week, he has already demonstrated his talents in England. He has also featured for his national side 15 times, scoring nine times.

19 LEROY SANE

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 11.01.96
Sané has been in outstanding form this season and, consequently, he looks likeky to appear for Joachim Low's German national team at the World Cup this summer. He was the Premier League Player of the Month back in October for his instrumental performances and the 22-year-old looks set to continue to improve in the coming years. He signed for City in August, 2016, following two years at Bundesliga club Schalke 04.

10 SERGIO AGUERO

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 02.06.88
It is hard to overstate Aguero's importance to City or how consistent a performer he has been for the club since he signed from Atletico Madrid in 2011. His last-gasp winner against QPR famously secured City's first Premier League title in 2012 and Aguero continues to get even better. He is City's all-time leading goalscorer and he is still young enough – and hungry enough – to set a goalscoring tally that will take some beating.

PLAYER PROFILE

Born: 28.06.91
Position: Midfielder
Joined present club: 2015
Previous clubs: Genk, Chelsea, Werder Bremen (loan), Wolfsburg

De Bruyne is among the leading contenders for the Footballer of the Year accolade after a stunning campaign at the Etihad Stadium. Signed from Wolfsburg in August 2015, the Belgian playmaker has been in incredible form all season for Pep Guardiola's side. De Bruyne has recorded an impressive 15 assists in the league this term, also scoring seven goals.

GOLD DUST

LINKING UP WITH TODAY'S VISITORS. JOHN FENNELLY RECALLS THE MEN AND MOMENTS FROM OUR SHARED PAST

DOUBLE EDGE

Like fellow centre-forward Len Duquemin, Chris Jones journeyed to Tottenham from the Channel Islands and, although totally different in style, possessed the same mental strength and eagerness of his predecessor who had played such a huge role in our 1951 Championship success.

While the Duke was a battering ram of the old style who could also play a bit, Jones was more subtle, skilful and astute. He possessed good ability but good fortune is also a key attribute that every striker needs and Chris rarely seemed to enjoy the luck to score enough scrappy goals.

Indeed, he had to work hard for all that he achieved and, to his credit, he was always willing to do that. On his day he was exceptional but in his time at Spurs he faced strong competition as a central attacker so found it difficult to enjoy the consistency that a long run in the side would have produced.

He competed with Martin Chivers after making his debut on the opening day of the 1974-75 season and was then up against the likes of John Duncan, Chris McGrath, Gerry Armstrong, Ian Moores, Colin Lee, Mark Falco, Steve Archibald and Garth Crooks as his Spurs career unfolded.

His best period was alongside Chivers but these were seasons when we were fighting relegation before finally going down in 1977. His eight goals in 20 Second Division games were vital to us gaining promotion at the first attempt and his excellent movement and threatening runs certainly made many more openings for others.

Chris Jones

Chris switched to Manchester City in September, 1982, but left after a couple of months to join Crystal Palace. He also played for Charlton Athletic and Leyton Orient.

Triple Measure

Nayim scored a hat-trick when we knocked Manchester City out of the FA Cup at the sixth round stage at Maine Road in March, 1993. Steve Sedgley also scored in our 4-2 win with Mike Sheron and Terry Phelan responding for the hosts. We also won at City in the League Cup and both league games that season.

GOLD DUST

MAIN ISSUE

Our programme for City's visit to the Lane on April 8, 1912, was an eight-page pink production that cost one penny. Cocky Cockerel's cartoon was on its usual perch on the cover with editorial featured on pages three and six.

There were two pages of fixtures and tables plus another two featuring adverts offering coats, boots, shirts, furniture and books. Local army recruitment offices were listed for men between 17-25 and acclaimed Scottish singer/comedian Harry Lauder was appearing 'twice nightly' at the Tottenham Palace.

Two famous old Spurs pubs – the Whitehall Tavern and the Eagle – invited fans in for an after-match pint.

Manchester United, our next opponents, were described as City's "near and dear neighbours," the Tottenham Old Boys Cup Final was due to be staged at our stadium and supporters were asked to respond to an appeal to help the local association buy a winners' shield and cup.

Two former Spurs players were introduced in the City squad – Sandy Young and John Chaplin.

Front Page

The year 1912 also saw the tragic sinking of the Titanic and attacks by suffragettes on shops in London's West End. Their leader Emmeline Pankhurst was among 120 women arrested. Captain Robert Scott (pictured) reached the South Pole but the party perished on their attempted return journey. Both vessels sank in the University Boat Race, a British film censor was appointed and the Royal Flying Corps formed. The Royal Variety Performance got underway and the Post Office took over the National Telephone Company.

LOCAL HERO

Future England international Bert Bliss made his Spurs debut when City beat us 2-0 at the Lane in April, 1912.

Joe Dorsett and Wales international Billy Lot Jones both scored – as they had also done at Hyde Road when we lost 2-1 there three days before. Ernie Newman replied for Spurs.

We finished 12th that season. City were just two points behind us in 15th but only two points better off than relegated Preston.

Bert Bliss

Born in Willenhall, Bert was spotted playing in a schoolboy representative match and so impressed that we immediately signed him as a pro. That first appearance against City came literally within hours of his arrival at White Hart Lane!

A lively inside-forward who specialised in long-range shooting, Bliss top scored for us with 21 league goals in season 1914-15 – although we were relegated as the division's bottom club!

He was another player who lost the best years of his career to the First World War but when normal life resumed, Bliss returned to what he knew best – scoring goals. His 31 in 1919-20 saw us win the Division Two title and he was a vital part of our FA Cup success the following season.

YOUNGSTERS ENJOY BALL BOY EXPERIENCE

George Holland and Tommy Miller were selected by our coaches at our Premier Day in December to be ball boys for our league match against Huddersfield Town last month.

George (left) and Tommy (right), both aged 12, were chosen as two outstanding young players at the event – part of our Player Development programme which takes place at our state-of-the-art Training Centre. They both showed outstanding levels of ability and attitude during the programme, impressing our FA and UEFA-qualified coaches.

We spoke to both of the boys after the match, who were thrilled to have the opportunity to be ball boys.

"I was so excited to be a ball boy," said Tommy. "To be so close to the players during the warm up and the game was such a great experience. It felt like I was part of the team helping them with retrieving the ball. I also got to see Son's great header up close which was a bonus. Thank you for having me."

George added: "Thank you so much, I had the best day and enjoyed watching Match of the Day and seeing myself! I loved every minute – it was a dream come true."

Opportunities to be a ball boy at our home matches are just one of the many benefits to joining us on our Player Development programmes. Our programmes run throughout the year in London, Essex and Hertfordshire. Upcoming courses are available to book now at tottenhamhotspur.com/player-development-programmes

Dilan Markanday evades Chelsea's Charlie Brown during our Under-18s League Cup Final

MIXED FORTUNES DURING BUSY SPELL FOR YOUNGSTERS

It's been a busy time for our Academy since our last match programme as they battled on three different fronts but suffered defeats in two separate cup competitions.

Five league matches since our last round-up have seen Scott Parker's team share a goalless draw with Swansea City, enjoy a 5-0 win over Aston Villa thanks to goals from Reo Griffiths (2), Rodel Richards (2) and Dilan Markanday, before suffering a first defeat since November when we lost 2-0 at West Ham United.

Last weekend goals from Armando Shashoua and Troy Parrot – their first in the Under-18 Premier League – saw us come back from 1-0 down to win 2-1 at Fulham, while our most recent contest was on Wednesday when we travelled to Norwich City.

Unfortunately though, Griffiths' third hat-trick of the season wasn't enough as some costly mistakes at the back saw us lose out in a goal-fest.

We'd recovered from 1-0 down to lead in the first half but goalkeeper Charlie Freeman endured a difficult first game back in action after missing the entire campaign up until this point through injury.

On the bench for some of our recent matches, he came into the starting line-up at Norwich's Colney Training Ground and, along with some of his defenders, will have felt he could have done better on a couple of the Canaries' goals.

Griffiths, wearing the captain's armband, tried his best to keep his team-mates afloat by banging in the goals at the other end and rounding off his treble with the goal of the game, a superb strike from long range to make it 3-3.

But his opposite number up front for Norwich, Adam Idah, also helped himself to a hat-trick as the home side took full advantage of our uncharacteristic frailties to claim the points.

"It was a disappointing result and a disappointing performance," said Scott, of the Norwich game. "It wasn't at the level we've set over the last few months but we go again, we've got two games left against two tough opponents in Chelsea and Arsenal. They'll be tough games and we'll certainly need to put in a better performance than we did today."

Spurs v Norwich: Freeman, Tainio, Reynolds (Hinds 58), White, Statham, Bowden, Pochettino (P Maghoma 68), Mukendi (Thorpe 80), Griffiths (c), Richards, Clarke. Substitute (not used): Oluwayemi.

Samuel Shashoua holds off Porto's Paulo Estrela

A below-par first-half display cost us dearly as we lost the first ever Under-18 Premier League Cup Final 2-0 to Chelsea last month.

The Blues, who hosted the showpiece game at their Cobham training ground, were far superior in the first half hour, showing exactly why they continue to maintain a stranglehold over youth football at home and abroad.

After our goalkeeper Jonathan De Bie saved Conor Gallagher's early penalty, Charlie Brown fired Chelsea into an 18th-minute lead as they forced us into making mistakes and were powerful and organised in their own endeavours.

After a spell where we played our way back into the game, Brown snatched a crucial second goal on the stroke of half-time to put his side firmly in control.

To our players' credit, we gave it a real go after the interval and had a couple of openings late on, but 16-year-old striker Troy Parrot - leading the line in the absence of Under-18s top scorer Reo Griffiths - was denied by goalkeeper Karlo Ziger and then by a covering Marcel Lavinier tackle.

TJ Eyoma made some excellent interventions at the other end to prevent Chelsea from extending their lead, but ultimately it was our London rivals who got their hands on the silverware.

Spurs v Chelsea: De Bie (c), Hinds, Reynolds, Bowden (P Maghoma 58), Eyoma, Lyons-Foster (Dinzeyi 30), Markanday, Skipp (Richards 76), Parrot, Patterson, Bennett. Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, A Shashoua.

Our UEFA Youth League adventure ended in disappointing fashion with a 2-0 home defeat to FC Porto Under-19s recently.

We controlled the possession for long spells of the quarter-final clash at Hotspur Way, but a combination of passes not reaching their intended targets and the visitors maintaining a stubborn five-man rearguard kept us at bay.

Porto grabbed the lead against the run of play on the half-hour mark when Diogo Liete's powerful header from a corner went in off Oliver Skipp and it was 2-0 within 10 minutes when Santiago Vera's shot squirmed under goalkeeper Brandon Austin.

It was attack versus defence in our favour for much of the second half with Samuel Shashoua and Phoenix Patterson looking to weave their way into good areas, but we still didn't create anything clear-cut and our misery was compounded in stoppage time when George Marsh picked up a second yellow card.

Spurs v FC Porto: Austin, Hinds, Reynolds (Brown 68), Marsh, Tanganga (c) (Duncan 46), Eyoma, S Shashoua, Skipp, Griffiths, P Maghoma (Patterson 46), Bennetts. Substitutes (not used): De Bie, Dinzeyi, Lyons-Foster, Bowden.

ACADEMY PROFILE: JOSHUA OLUWAYEMI (GOALKEEPER)

Born: March 13, 2001, in Queen's Hospital near Harold Wood.

Last school: Emerson Park Academy in Hornchurch.

Any representative honours? I won three caps for England at Under-15 level and went on a few training camps with the Under-16s.

When did you first start training for Spurs? In the Under-11s at Chigwell.

Who do you like to watch in training in our first team and why? Obviously I like to watch Hugo Lloris. Whenever I get the chance to watch the goalkeepers I focus on what he and Michel Vorm do. I'm impressed by the crispness in their feet and their handling – everything they do is very sharp.

Which overseas league do you follow closest and which players from it do you most appreciate? The Spanish league is the one I keep an eye on most and I try to watch Keylor Navas from Real Madrid and Marc-Andre ter Stegen at Barcelona. Navas is a reactive keeper, quick off his line and he pulls off good saves, whereas ter Stegen's playing out from the back is very composed under pressure, with both feet.

Any other sports men or women in your family? My brother Tobi is a goalkeeper here in the Spurs Academy, two years below me. He's been called up for England youth as well. Also my dad Abi used to be a keeper – he played for Nigeria's youth team when he was young.

First family holiday? To New York to see my auntie. I was only three but strangely I still remember the house that we stayed in! It's weird – I have this memory of waking up one morning in that house in America!

If you could meet anyone famous outside of football, who would it be and why? Before he died I would have said Muhammad Ali. I would have wanted to see how his mindset was and what sort of guy he was because he went through a lot while performing in the ring.

Which social media platform do you use most? Instagram.

FIFA or Call of Duty? FIFA.

Golf or shopping? Shopping.

Smart or casual? Casual.

What do you do to chill out on a day off? Play a lot of Fortnite on my PS4 or just go out with my friends. I also like to watch Designated Survivor or Game of Thrones on Netflix.

If not a footballer what would you like to be? I've always liked art. From year seven to year nine, I was very good but I didn't take it for my GCSEs as I didn't see it as a career path. I've always liked drawing and painting so I'd like to get back in touch with that. I'd probably paint sports scenes to mix football with art.

RAMS RESULT GIVES SURVIVAL HOPES HUGE BOOST

Anthony Georgiou takes on the Derby defence

Our Under-23s took a huge step towards securing Premier League 2 survival with a 4-2 victory in a crunch match against Derby County at Hotspur Way last Saturday.

Following basement side Manchester United's win against second-bottom Sunderland on Friday night, Wayne Burnett's troops knew three points against the Rams would put them four points and a superior goal difference clear of the drop zone with two games remaining.

We seemed on course to make that happen when Joe Pritchard added to Lee Buchanan's early own goal to put us 2-0 up inside 11 minutes.

But two goals in three minutes from Derby striker Cameron Cresswell levelled things up during a frantic opening spell, before Anthony Georgiou's long-range strike restored our lead just after the half-hour mark.

It stayed 3-2 for much of the game but while we were clearly in control, we didn't test Derby goalkeeper Joshua Barnes enough and were always wary of conceding at the other end.

Thankfully, the Rams couldn't create anything meaningful themselves apart from a couple of angled drives across goal from the right and when Kazaiah Sterling was upended in the box deep in stoppage time, the striker converted from the spot to finally make the game safe.

We've now won four and drawn two of our last six Premier League 2 matches and leapfrogged Derby as a result of Saturday's contest.

"It's a very important result," said Burnett. "It was a difficult game but I'm delighted with the three points that we very much needed.

"We've scored first a lot this season, we were 2-0 up, we needed to take control of the game which we didn't do and they got back into it. The goal for 3-2 gave us a little bit of a boost, it was important and the result was very good in the end, but the performance wasn't so good. The players are aware of that. At this stage of the season when you're fighting for points, the result is key, but we can't lose sight of the fact that we want to perform as well as win."

STUNNING STRIKES ENSURE DERBY SPOILS

Defender TJ Eyoma scored against his brother's team while Oliver Skipp and Keanan Bennetts produced cracking strikes as we came back from a goal down to see off Arsenal 3-1 in the Premier League 2 last month.

Despite falling behind against the run of play to Danny Ballard's header from a free-kick, we produced an excellent performance from back to front at Boreham Wood FC to make it five games unbeaten in the division and give a further boost to our bid to move away from the drop zone.

An eventful afternoon for right-back Eyoma began when he headed in the equaliser shortly after the mid-way point of the first half.

The introduction of his older brother AJ from Arsenal's bench in the second period saw the pair play against each other on opposite sides of a north London derby for the second time in their young careers and, when

Keanan Bennetts is congratulated after his free-kick against Arsenal

Christian Maghoma challenges Arsenal's Vlad Dragomir

AJ was switched from the right to left wing, they were in direct competition with one another for a spell – TJ coming out on top in both duels between them!

Ultimately, it was a pair of stunning goals that won us the game, though. First, midfielder Skipp picked out the top corner with a superb first-time finish on his left foot with 12 minutes to go until half-time – his first goal in our colours.

And the game was effectively made safe when Keanan Bennetts scored a spectacular 25-yard free-kick shortly before the hour mark.

We still had to defend at times with Japhet Tanganga impressive on his return from a three-month injury lay-off, while George Marsh and Christian Maghoma made crucial interventions in the box to prevent our rivals from making a comeback. Jack Roles hit the bar for us late on.

SEAGULLS SWOOP TO DENY LADIES

Brighton & Hove Albion 2-0 Spurs Ladies

Tottenham Hotspur Ladies left Culver Road with a frustrating 2-0 defeat after Brighton & Hove Albion struck late in each half during an end-to-end FA Women's Super League 2 contest in their most recent outing.

Back in action after a midweek WSL 2 game against Millwall was postponed, we were put under pressure in the early exchanges as Ini Umotong threatened and Danni Buet fired wide. Katie O'Leary was denied one-on-one as we got into the game and then both teams hit the woodwork – Jenna Legg for Brighton before Bianca Baptiste hit the upright with Lucy Gillett beaten.

Bianca Baptiste in action at Brighton

Buet, Lucy Somes and Aileen Whelan tried their luck for Brighton while at the other end, Gillet saved from Wendy Martin.

Buet struck wide again on 43 minutes but the home team took the lead a minute later when Chloe Peplow's free-kick looped home.

Whelan touched wide Peplow's free-kick on 51 minutes as the home side looked to extend their lead while at the other end, last-ditch defending prevented O'Leary from netting an equaliser. Ashleigh Neville then hooked away from Whelan in front of goal.

RETURN TO ACTION ENDS IN DEFEAT FOR LADIES

Doncaster Rovers Belles 3-0 Spurs Ladies

It was a story of missed opportunities for Spurs Ladies as they slipped to a 3-0 defeat to league leaders Doncaster Rovers Belles at the Keepmoat Stadium recently.

Both teams had chances but, with Karen Hills' side playing their first competitive game for over a month, it was the hosts who ran out victorious in the Women's Super League 2.

Bianca Baptiste's trickery forced Sophie Bradley-Auckland to head inches wide of her own post inside three minutes as we started brightly, although Rebecca Rayner fired just wide from 18 yards at the other end shortly after.

The table-toppers took the lead in the 34th minute, as Rayner found Kirtsy Hanson's run inside the box and she fired into the far corner and it was almost 2-0 five minutes later only for Leandra Little to head over the bar.

Three minutes before the break, Jenna Schillaci's intelligent right-sided free-kick came within inches of finding Ashleigh Neville on the stretch, but it wasn't to be and we went in trailing at the break.

With 53 minutes gone, Belles doubled their advantage when Rayner picked up the ball just outside the area and guided her shot home. The same player then teed up Jess Sigsworth for a one-on-one, but Renee Hector smothered with a vital touch.

The home side continued to press and they were rewarded with a third goal eight minutes from time as Sigsworth let fly from 20 yards and the ball rocketed into the top left corner.

Three minutes from time, Neville's lung-bursting run saw her find Martin, whose first-time shot was blocked by Samantha Tierney, while Baptiste's curler from the left came within inches of dropping in as we pushed for a later response, but Belles held firm for their clean sheet.

Spurs Ladies: Morgan, Neville, Hector, Schillaci, Vyse, Green, Haines, Mclean (Laudat 56), Martin, Baptiste, Wiltshire (Mackenzie 74). Substitutes (not used): Crook, O'Leary.

quarter. Gillett tipped over Coral-Jade Haines' volley on 69 minutes, Baptiste then had the ball in the net only to be denied by the offside flag and Andreya Ezekiel-Meade was denied a debut goal on 85 minutes when she clipped Hannah Mackenzie's pass over Gillett only for Vicky Ashton-Jones to get back and clear off the line.

So near yet so far – and Brighton doubled their lead in stoppage-time when Amanda Nilden slotted home from Umotong's pass.

Spurs Ladies: Morgan, Neville, Hector, Schillaci, Vyse, Green, Haines (Ezekiel-Meade 80), Martin, Baptiste, O'Leary (Pickett 76), Laudat (Mackenzie 66). Substitute (not used): Crook.

LOWER EAST STAND PREMIUM SEATS – REDEFINING YOUR MATCHDAY EXPERIENCE

Our New Stadium gives our fans a chance to not only watch their football in amazing new surroundings but to reimagine the way they enjoy their matchday. Instead of arriving at kick-off and leaving early to beat the traffic, why not spend your pre and post-match relaxing in comfort? East Stand Premium Seats give members the option to obtain a VIP seat without breaking the bank.

Premium Seat membership at our New Stadium provides an informal and relaxed feel designed to offer a luxury yet authentic football experience. Members will have access to their own private lounges and dedicated VIP areas to enjoy before and after the match.

Here, they will be able to discuss the game over a complimentary half-time drink, pick up their free matchday programme and have the chance to meet with an array of Spurs legends.

Members will also have the opportunity to pick their seats in some of the very best locations in the New Stadium including directly on the halfway line.

"A key element of what we offer is about choice," said Andy O'Sullivan, Venue Director. "We are not forcing a defined product onto our customers, rather presenting them with options from which they can pick and choose from week in, week out."

These options are emphasised in the East Stand where members can enjoy either a lively sports bar-style area or relax in a VIP Lounge. There are also a host of dining options. In addition to the grazing and handheld fan favourites which comes as complimentary, members have the option to upgrade to a number of restaurants and cuisines.

Whether that's booking in advance for a special occasion, or on the spur of the moment on matchday, premium dining incorporates not just quality, but also flexibility within dining that we believe cannot be matched in any other sports stadium in the country.

Members will also have access to more unique benefits including fast track VIP entry, e-ticketing facilities, priority access and discounts to social events and complimentary access to private shuttles; all coming together to form a complete premium experience.

Whether for business or pleasure, the delivery of our world class stadium next season will revolutionise sports and entertainment, with the best experience anywhere in Europe.

Premium Seats give you the opportunity to make the most of your day! For more information, please call 0344 216 2018 or email premium.sales@tottenhamhotspur.com.

Networking Redefined

Our Sky Lounges are modern, contemporary spaces where you and your guests will enjoy stunning, panoramic views across London in addition to fantastic match seats on the halfway line.

With limited availability remaining, act now to find out how you can be here in the New Stadium next season.

Help Noah's Ark build the children's hospice North London desperately needs

Tottenham Hotspur's First Team players have given an hour to build The Ark. Will you?

Donating just an hour of your salary will help Noah's Ark build North London's only children's hospice building and support more than 1,200 babies, children and young people with life-limiting or life-threatening conditions.

The Ark will complement our existing Hospice-at-Home services, providing 24-hour end-of-life, post-death and bereavement care, overnight stays and sensory, music and art rooms.

Martin Chivers started his career with Southampton and in six years with the Saints he scored 97 goals in 175 appearances, won 12 England Under-23 caps and was recognised as one of the country's outstanding young talents.

When Bill Nicholson decided Chivers was the man to lead our attack he had to fork out a record £125,000 and allow 1967 FA Cup final hero Frank Saul to move in part-exchange.

The outlay seemed justified in Chivers' first game as he scored the winning goal, a 30-yard volley with just four minutes left in a 2-1 defeat of Sheffield Wednesday, and so began the flow of goals which has left him third on our all-time top goalscorers list. Ten days later Chivers went one better, scoring both goals as we drew 2-2 at Manchester United in the FA Cup third round.

As Chivers settled in to a forward line that included Jimmy Greaves and Alan Gilzean, his career suffered a setback when he sustained a serious knee injury against Nottingham Forest in September, 1968. It put him out of action for the rest of the season. When he returned he lacked confidence, pulling out of physical challenges and he was a shadow of his former self.

The turning point came in October, 1970. The departure of Greaves had thrown the main goalscoring burden on Chivers' shoulders. He had scored 12 goals in 18 games when Stoke City visited White Hart Lane. He was up against Dennis Smith, a tough, uncompromising defender with little regard for the niceties of the game. We were two-up and defending a corner with Chivers and Smith loitering in the centre circle. The ball broke from defence and appeared to be heading for the touchline just inside the Stoke half. Smith seemed well in control as the pair of them moved towards the ball but suddenly Chivers accelerated.

He hit Smith with a perfectly fair shoulder charge that was so powerful Smith was sent tumbling 10 yards and did not stop until he was off the pitch. Chivers picked up the ball, advanced a couple of paces and curled the sweetest of 30-yarders around Gordon Banks. It was a proclamation of what was to come.

> “HE HAD INCREDIBLE BALANCE, BALL CONTROL AND UNEXPECTED SUBTLETY”

MARTIN CHIVERS STATS

CHIVERS, Martin Harcourt (1967-80)
Position: Striker
Born: Southampton, Hampshire, April 27, 1945
Signed from: Southampton January, 1968
Transferred to Servette (Switzerland)
Also played for: Southampton, Servette, Norwich City, Brighton and Hove Albion, Dorchester Town, Vard, Barnet, England

First goal:	January 17, 1968 v Sheffield Wednesday (Division One) (A) won 2-1
100th goal:	September 6, 1972 v Huddersfield Town (League Cup R2) (H) won 2-1
Final goal:	March 27, 1976 v Sheffield United (Division One) (H) won 5-0

For the next four years Chivers was outstanding, far and away the best striker in the country, arguably the best in the world. The power, pace and strength that had been hidden for too long came to the fore. Chivers was not only about aggression though…he had incredible balance, ball control and unexpected subtlety.

In the 1971 Football League Cup final he scored both goals against Aston Villa, a year later he got both goals in the first leg of the UEFA Cup final at Molineux, having become the latest member of our 100 Club when he netted in a 2-1 League Cup defeat of Huddersfield Town in September, 1972.

Having won another League Cup winners' tankard in 1973 and played in the UEFA Cup Final of 1974, Chivers left us to join Swiss side Servette with a tally of 174 goals in 367 appearances and his reputation as one of our finest ever goalscorers firmly in place.

Gary Mabbutt and Cllr Bhagwanji Chohan, the Mayor of Brent, at the Jobs Fair

CLUB HOLDS SECOND WEMBLEY JOBS FAIR

Over 400 local people were in attendance as the club held its second Jobs Fair in the space of a year at Wembley Stadium recently.

As part of our commitment to the London Borough of Brent during our season playing home matches here at Wembley, 50 employers from a range of industries were in attendance, offering live job opportunities.

The event was attended by Club Ambassador, Gary Mabbutt MBE, and Cllr Bhagwanji Chohan, the Mayor of Brent, who spent time engaging with employers and job seekers.

Our legendary former captain said: "As part of our commitment to the Borough of Brent during our season at Wembley, it is great to see the Jobs Fair so well attended.

"The club has a fantastic track record of helping people into employment, having created more than 1,200 job opportunities as a direct result of our new stadium development in Tottenham.

"We hope that there would have been many positive outcomes among the 400 people in attendance at Wembley, with so many varied employers offering live job opportunities.

Cllr Chohan added: "Tottenham Hotspur is doing great work in this Borough, bringing more employment, more job opportunities and bringing people together.

"I should like to thank the club for bringing this event together - it's a great opportunity for local people and this sort of work is vital in Brent."

This Jobs Fair was aimed at promoting the potential of employing ex-offenders. On the day, Her Majesty's Prison and Probation Service (HMPPS) and their key partners who make up the Employer Engagement Partnership Group (EEPG) for London and Thames Valley, held an event demonstrating the benefits of working with prisons to create academies that train offenders in the skills needed to support businesses.

The event was an opportunity for employers who currently employ ex-offenders to offer advice and showcase success stories to businesses who do not presently do so.

One of the organisations that delivered a workshop during the event was our Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, the club's charitable arm that has piloted a resettlement programme for 140 offenders approaching their release date from HMP Wormwood Scrubs.

The Foundation has a proven track record of delivering employment opportunities for ex-offenders for over a decade within its local community in Haringey.

Jordan Mattis is a beneficiary of this work and said: "When I first came into contact with Tottenham Hotspur I was in prison. The club changed my life in more ways than it could realise. I'm a manager now and they've helped me mentally, which I feel is the most important part."

Sarah Ebanja appointed Chief Executive

The Club were this week delighted to announce the appointment of Sarah Ebanja as Chief Executive of the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation – our award-winning charitable body.

Sarah has worked for over 20 years at senior level in local and regional government including roles at the London Boroughs of Lewisham, Hackney and Islington, and as Deputy Chief Executive of the London Development Agency.

She currently chairs the Newlon Housing Trust and the College of Haringey, Enfield & North East London, and was previously chair of the Bernie Grant Arts Centre and the Stephen Lawrence Trust.

Donna-Maria Cullen, Chair of Trustees of the Foundation said: "Sarah brings a wealth of experience coupled with great drive and energy. She is widely recognised for her work in areas that are the focus of our Foundation's delivery and, indeed, has spent years in North Tottenham.

"The Club's new stadium project is kick-starting regeneration and has already delivered new jobs, homes and schools. The work of the Foundation has been, and will increasingly be, instrumental in bringing benefits to the local community in what is one of the most deprived areas of London.

"Like us, Sarah is committed to bettering opportunities for individuals, communities and neighbourhoods, principally through creating educational and employment opportunities. We are delighted to have Sarah join us at this key time."

Percy House...the new home of our Foundation

Nikki Kelly, who covered the position on an interim basis and who led the Foundation's delivery of programmes in Brent during the Club's season at Wembley, has been promoted to Director of Programmes.

The announcement comes as our new enterprise, employment and skills hub at Percy House, Tottenham High Road, becomes fully operational and open to the public.

Percy House will become the new home of the Foundation and transform the economic and social prospects of one of the most disadvantaged communities in the country, delivering over 95,000 hours of community development, health, enterprise, education and sports programmes every year to those living in the Club's local area.

Dele launches new community league

Dele Alli has helped launch a new Tottenham Hotspur Foundation programme which aims to help reduce levels of crime and anti-social behaviour in Haringey.

The 'Tottenham Hotspur Community Football League', which runs in partnership with the Metropolitan Police and Haringey Council, runs every Friday evening from 5.30pm – 8.30pm at the Duke's Aldridge Academy, adjacent to our new stadium development. Local Under-14 teams play in the league and compete against each other each week.

As well as providing a space for youngsters to play football, the programme organises workshops for the teenagers to discuss the challenges they face in the community and gives them practical tips to overcome these issues. These sessions are designed to build the self-esteem and confidence of the youngsters, helping them to get back into education, training or employment and steering them away from potential unemployment or crime.

Dele said: "The opportunity to play football was so important to me as I was growing up and this new football league the club is running is a brilliant way of getting young people from this area together to play sport and meet friends within a safe environment."

Cllr Eugene Ayisi, Haringey Council's Cabinet Member for Communities, said: "Having grown up in Tottenham, I'm thrilled that we, Spurs and the police are coming together to reduce anti-social behaviour and give young people opportunities on their doorstep through sport."

YOUR SHOUT

This is the place for you, our supporters, to share your greetings, wishes, messages and photos through our matchday programme. If you want something to be included, please email us at programme@tottenhamhotspur.com and we will do our best to feature it.

RYAN: 'IT'S GOOD TO BE BACK HOME'

By his own admission, you'll struggle to keep Ryan Mason away from Hotspur Way at the moment.

Our home-grown former midfielder was forced to prematurely call time on his playing career in February, some 13 months after suffering a fractured skull while playing for Hull City at Chelsea in the Premier League.

Always a popular figure among players, staff and fans at Spurs, having been here from the age of seven all the way through to his departure for the Tigers in August, 2016, 'Mase' is starting to explore his options as he considers where he wants to go next in life.

And, happily for the former England international that includes spending time at our Training Centre as he takes his first steps on the coaching pathway, while also dabbling in media punditry.

"I'm happy, that's the most important thing," smiled the 26-year-old as we caught up with him for his first interview with us since his world was turned upside down in January, 2017.

"I'm alive and I'm happy. It's a whole new challenge that I'm stepping into now – I've done bits of media, I'm doing coaching, it's just the next step in my career. To be honest I was hoping it would be at 35 or 36 years old but I'm 26, it's happened, I've got a head-start on everyone and I'm keen to make the most of the next 10 years. I've always been positive throughout the whole injury. That's the reality. It's the best way to be. I'm excited for the future now."

As someone whose life has revolved around football – and indeed Spurs – since his early childhood, it seemed a given that Ryan would turn his hand to coaching after hanging up his boots.

Now kitted out once more in a club tracksuit, he's thrilled to be back at Hotspur Way on a voluntary basis and gaining experience of practical coaching in the Academy set-up he knows so well, while he intends to work through his coaching badges.

"I'm enjoying it," said Ryan, who was a member of our 2015 League Cup Final starting XI and made 70 senior appearances for us, scoring four goals under Mauricio Pochettino's tutelage.

"I've been in a couple of weeks now and it's a great thing to be starting the next chapter. I'm fortunate enough to be in a position where the club have offered their help so it was a no-brainer to come back in and at the same time get cracking with my badges.

"At the moment I'm just observing as much as I can. I've joined in a little and taken little bits of sessions as well. I'm doing work with the young boys, with the reserves (Under-23s), with everyone, so I can hopefully pass on my knowledge and help them out.

"I don't know where I want to go with it yet. If you were to say, 'would I be a manager?', I don't know. I don't know whether I want to stay coaching kids. It's just a case of coming in, finding the path and seeing where I want to go with it all but I'm loving being back out there and being involved with football – especially here as well because it's all I've known for so long. It's good to be back home."

Ryan, who recently became a father for the first time, also underlined how he felt it was important not to waste any time following his retirement and move quickly to embark on his next journey.

"I've always stayed in contact with people here," he explained. "I was at the club for 18 years and even though I left, the club never left me. It's always been my club, I was always keen to come back and when that opportunity arose it wasn't a case of thinking that I needed time, I was keen to get back in and get started as soon as possible.

"It was just a case of when (he'd move into coaching) to be honest. As a player, I was always keen on helping the young lads. I had a unique situation of coming through the Academy into the first team and I was always keen to speak to the young boys and help them make that step. Obviously it's come a lot sooner than I expected but it's a fresh challenge and I'm just looking forward to hopefully helping people become Premier League players."

QUESTION TIME

A quick quiz to keep you busy during half-time...how many questions can you get right on our previous matches and club connections with tonight's opponents

QUICK SIX

1. In the 1957-58 season, each team won the home match by a 5-1 scoreline, but who scored a hat-trick for us in our victory?

2. Which member of our current squad has scored the most goals against Manchester City in our colours?

3. Name the Japanese international who made his Spurs debut against City in April, 2004?

4. What was the significance of our home game against Manchester City in October, 1960?

5. Can you name the player who came through City's youth set up to play for their first team and joined us from Sheffield United in 2004?

6. How many goals did Jermain Defoe score for us against City?

MISSING MEN...

Here's our starting line-up from the last time we played Manchester City here at Wembley – the FA Cup Final replay of 1981 – but who's missing?

CAREER PATH

Can you name the former Spurs and City defender who also played for Dinamo Zagreb, Bayer Leverkusen and Lokomotiv Moscow in his career?

WHO SCORED?

We scored three goals in seven minutes to defeat City 3-1 at the Lane in April, 2013, but who was on target?

GOALS GALORE...

There have been 119 goals in our 41 Premier League matches against Manchester City, but how many have we scored?

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Action from our game against City in January, 2004, but who are the two players pictured?

ANSWERS. Missing Men: (Paul) Miller, (Ossie) Ardiles. Career Path: Vedran Corluka. Who Scored: Clint Dempsey, Jermain Defoe and Gareth Bale. Goals Galore: 60. From The Archives: Mauricio Taricco and Trevor Sinclair. Quick Six: 1. Bobby Smith 2. Christian Eriksen (three goals); 3. Kazayuki Toda; 4. It was the first league game of 1960-61 that we failed to win, after 11 straight wins; 5. Michael Brown 6. Eight.

DELE ALLI

England midfielder Dele Alli celebrated his 100th Premier League appearance for us in style, scoring twice in our 3-1 win at Stamford Bridge a fortnight ago. His two goals made it 36 strikes in his century of Spurs league games.

HUGO LLORIS

Captain for club and country, French international Hugo Lloris made his 200th Premier League appearance in last weekend's 3-1 win at Stoke City. That was his 248th game in our colours, having also played twice in the FA Cup, three games in the League Cup and 43 in Europe.

WEMBLEY MEMORIES

Each matchday, Andy Greeves speaks to a former Spurs player about his memories of Wembley Stadium during his career. This evening, Ray Clemence remembers his Spurs debut and numerous other appearances at the 'Home of Football' for club and country

Shortly after celebrating his 33rd birthday, goalkeeper Ray Clemence signed for us from Liverpool in the summer of 1981. His first appearance in our colours came on the grandest of stages, as he started for us here at Wembley Stadium in our 2-2 draw with Aston Villa in the FA Charity Shield of August 22, 1981.

"I had made the decision to leave Liverpool at the start of the summer and Bruce Grobbelaar played in all the first-team pre-season friendlies as a result," recalls Clemence on his switch from Merseyside to North London. "I played a few reserve friendlies for Liverpool against teams like Runcorn and Northwich Victoria in pre-season. Then, all of a sudden, I went from playing at non-league grounds to signing for Spurs, with my debut coming at Wembley in front of 90,000-plus spectators against the League champions!

"That Charity Shield match wasn't my greatest performance by any stretch of the imagination and I dropped a cross for one of their goals. My build-up to it hadn't exactly been ideal though and I'm glad a mistake like that happened in that game rather than a league match."

Clemence was no stranger to Wembley Stadium during his career and prior to signing for us, he already had 30 appearances under his belt for club and country at the 'Venue of Legends'. His first match here came on May 8, 1971, in Liverpool's 2-1 FA Cup Final defeat to Arsenal.

"I was 22 when I played at Wembley for the first time,"

> “I WOULDN’T SAY I WAS INTIMIDATED BY THE OCCASION, BUT THERE WERE CERTAINLY SOME NERVES IN THE TUNNEL BEFORE PLAYING IN FRONT OF 100,000 PEOPLE”

Clem leads out England ahead of a friendly against Brazil here in May, 1981

comments Ray, who made a total of 665 competitive appearances for Liverpool between 1967 and 1981. “I wouldn’t say I was intimidated by the occasion, but there were certainly some nerves lining up in the tunnel ahead of playing in front of 100,000 people in an FA Cup Final. I can remember afterwards wondering whether that game might have been my last opportunity to play at Wembley.”

As it was, Clemence and Liverpool would return to the stadium to win the FA Cup three years later with a 3-0 victory over Newcastle United. By now, the goalkeeper was an England international, with his Three Lions debut in Wales on November 15, 1972, followed by his first appearance for his country at the ‘Home of Football’ on January 24, 1973 – also against Wales.

In total, ‘Clem’ played in 21 England matches, three FA Cup Finals and five FA Charity Shield games at Wembley Stadium during his time at Liverpool as well as the Reds’ 1-0 victory over Club Brugge here in the European Cup Final of May 10, 1978.

“Playing that final in our home country definitely gave us a boost,” says Ray. “Probably 90 per cent or more of the spectators inside Wembley that night were Liverpool supporters it seemed like the stadium was coloured red and white.

“Once the game kicked off, it quickly became apparent that Brugge had no ambition of coming to attack us. They were looking to sit back and trying to hit us on the break. To be fair, they managed to hold out for quite a long time. Their goalkeeper (Birger Jensen) made three or four excellent saves, most notably from David Fairclough in a one-on-one situation. Then we saw Graeme Souness and Kenny Dalglish combine for the winning goal. As Kenny bared down on the goalkeeper, he could see him going to ground and he just dinked it over him."

Given Clem's long and distinguished career with Liverpool – that saw him win five league titles, the FA Cup, the League Cup, three European Cups, two UEFA Cups and the UEFA Super Cup during his time at Anfield – the irony of facing the Reds in his first Wembley cup final for Spurs was not lost on the goalkeeper.

"It did feel strange coming up against them," admits Clemence, on our League Cup Final meeting on March 13, 1982. "We played really well for the majority of that game. We went 1-0 up early on in the first half and it could have been more. Towards the end of the second half, Steve Archibald had an unbelievable chance to make it two and if that had gone in, I'm sure we would have gone on to win. As it was, Ronnie Whelan equalised with a few minutes of the match remaining. With the number of games we'd played that season, we began to tire in the extra time and Liverpool went on to win 3-1."

Despite that defeat, Ray still won silverware in his first season at Spurs, as we beat Queens Park Rangers 1-0 in the FA Cup Final replay of May 27, 1982.

"During that season we had pushed for the league title as well as reaching the final of the League Cup and the semi-final of the European Cup Winners' Cup," says Clem, who played in 61 of our 65 matches in all competitions during the campaign. "The FA Cup Final represented our last chance of winning a trophy that campaign though and we went to Wembley determined to get a result. Neither game against QPR was a classic but we deservedly won it in the replay. It was a relief as much as anything else as it would have been unthinkable to have played the number of games we did that season without anything to show for our efforts at the end."

Five years later, Clemence took part in the fifth FA Cup Final of his career as we went down to a 3-2 defeat to Coventry City at Wembley Stadium after extra time.

"For the neutral, that final must have been a great watch, but when you're on the losing side, that's absolutely no consolation," laments Clemence, who made 330 competitive appearances for us through until 1988. "We played really well in the first half and Clive Allen put us in front in a matter of minutes. There's that old saying in football that sometimes you can score too early and maybe that was the case that day.

"Coventry equalised in the first period, but we still went in 2-1 up at the break, when Gary Mabbutt scored. We had chances to increase our lead before Coventry equalised again. It was a great goal from their perspective with Dave Bennett's cross and Keith Houchen's diving header. In extra time, they got the 'luck of the cup' so to speak, with a shot that was going to cause me no problems deflecting off Gary and going into the only part of the goal I couldn't get to."

Clemence was a member of our coaching staff by the time we appeared in our next FA Cup Final against Nottingham Forest at Wembley Stadium on May 18, 1991, which saw us triumph 2-1 after extra time.

"Beating in Arsenal in the first-ever Wembley FA Cup semi-final was incredible," smiles Clemence. "I certainly wouldn't say the final was an anti-climax after that, but it was almost like we got to play two FA Cup Finals that season, such was the enormity of the semi-final against our old rivals!

"It was a different feeling winning the cup as a coach compared to a player but it was still every bit as good. We worked very hard in the week preparing for Forest, working on how to stop their key player Nigel Clough especially, and to see our efforts bear fruit was extremely satisfying."

Ray shared joint control of managerial responsibilities for our first-team with Doug Livermore during the 1992-93 season. The former goalkeeper says he has largely "wiped the details" of our 1-0 defeat to Arsenal in the FA Cup semi-final at Wembley during that campaign from his memory!

After a spell managing Barnet between 1994 and 1996, Clem became England goalkeeping coach and remained part of the Football Association coaching set-up prior to his retirement in 2013. He still attends many of our home matches in his capacity as a corporate host.
